succession planning

introduction: over the past ten years the Plato Network has developed a most effective programme that has enabled the managers of family-owned and family-run businesses to better manage and plan for their own futures, and that of their enterprise.

three hallmarks of effective succession:

- 1 Family Dynamics
- 2 Financial Issues
- 3 Legal Issues

what's it about?

Business succession planning can have many forms. It may be a legacy issue, a succession issue, a transference issue or a harvesting issue. The strategies required to meet the varied and often complex issues of succession need to be properly planned for and they need time to evolve.

Only 12% of family owned businesses survive to the third generation, why...

These programmes which are heavily subsidised by FÁS will be run throughout the country. For further information and course dates, contact your local PLATO office:
